FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

WHEREAS, John C. Dexter, of Bangor, in the county of Penobscot, on the twentieth day of January, A. D. 1833, by his mortgage deed of that date, duly executed and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds, book 33, page 404, a reference to which may be had, conveyed in mortgage to one Charles Thomas, two house lots situated in said Bangor, numbered one hundred and four and one hundred and five, according to a survey and plan of Thomas' land, by Joseph Treat, Esq., June, 1831, to which plan reference is made, to secure the payment of two several notes from said Dexter to said Thomas, of even date with said deed, for three hundred and forty-two dollars and fifty cents each, and interest, in one and two years from their date which mortgage deed and the last note therein mentioned were duly assigned on the fourth day of October A. D. 1833, by said Thomas to one Oliver Parker, and on the twenty-third day of November, 1835, by said Parker to Richard Hoben, late of Orrington, in said county, deceased, which assignments were duly executed and recorded in said Registry, book 42, pages 309 and 310, a reference to which may be had, which note assigned with said mortgage, as aforesaid, still remains due and unpaid.

Now therefore, be it known, that I, Elizabeth Hoben, Administratrix of said Richard Hoben, duly authorized, in my said capacity, by reason of the non-payment of said note, hereby give notice that the condition in said mortgage has been broken, by reason whereof I do claim to foreclose said mortgage, and do hereby foreclose the same.

HUMAN HAIR.

CLEANLINESS OF THE HEAD AND HAIR.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c. should neglect the Head the Hair the most essential the most exposed and the most beautiful when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm of Columbia. Ladies, will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly, No, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects its sweet perfume.

A hundred articles have been put forth on the credit of this the only first the only really valuable article. A mass of testimony from all classes to these facts.

LOOK OUT Counterfeits are abroad; look always for the name of COMSTOCK & Co. on the splendid wrappers, and never buy it without that name.

[From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.]

☞ We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developements, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, of our own.

Daring Fraud.

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it have the signature of COMSTOCK & Co. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

New READING BOOK for Schools.

THE MONITORIAL READER, or a Monitor to Youth, holding up to their view Models whereby to form their own Characters. By DANIEL ADAMS, Author of Adams's New Arithmetic.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PREFACE.

"THE MONITORIAL READER possesses distinctive traits. The object is to supply what is believed to be the great desideratum in our schools—a series of exercises relating to what concerns the practical matters of life truth, integrity, honesty, industry, temperance, forethought, frugality, patient endurance of adversity, and whatever else tends to form and fix the character of youth.

"We wish to impress it on the minds of those, into whose hands these exercises shall come, now, in this seed-time of life, what is here so abundantly inculcated, that 'Every man is emphatically the architect of his own fortune' that with themselves it lies whether they shall ever be any thing or nothing that a moral capital to begin with does not weigh a whit in the balance for or against them. that, coming into life with health, strength, capacity for labor, good education, a useful and respectable trade, habits of industry, sobriety, punctuality, frugality, and, above all, with a GOOD AND UNSULLIED CHARACTER, they have the best of all capital a moral capital: the noblest of all power moral power: and the most certain means of honest and honorable accumulation and fortune; and may be sure, under circumstances ordinarily propitious, to rise to that competency of influence, respect, and general confidence, and that honorable measure of wealth and independence, which should fully satisfy a reasonable and virtuous ambition."

EXTRACTS FROM RECOMMENDATIONS.

"The influence will all be found on the side of virtue, morality and religion. Occasional comments are given. Difficult or unusual words are defined. Prose and poetry are suitably intermingled. It is hardly to be imagined that this book should fail of popularity. It certainly would not, had it not so many competitors that have got the start of it in the race. As it is, its mettle is such as to give it fair promise of ultimate success in the contest. Boston Recorder.

Dr. Adams: Having examined to some extent your Monitorial Reader, I am pleased with its plan, its object, and the manner in which it has been executed. It seems adapted to the intellectual and moral improvement of those for whose use it was designed. I trust it will prove to be what its author fondly anticipates.

(Rev.) Z. S. BARSTOW, Keene.

It is just such a book as our New England boys and girls will be glad to see, for it inculcates in a pleasing manner, industry, frugality, truth, honesty, temperance, peace, kindness, fortitude, and a cheerful piety. The Vocabulary, at the end, and the arrangement for defining words, will add to its value in the hands of a judicious teacher.

(Rev.) ABIEL A. LIVERMORE, Keene.

We have also recommendations from a number of individuals and periodicals, among which are D. Crosby, Preceptor of the High School Nashua; J. Newton Brown, Professor of Theology at New Hampton. It is also adopted by the Associations of School Teachers in Cheshire and Hillsboro' counties, and by the School Committee of Concord.

About 800 copies have been published, and mostly disposed of.

Adams's Venuis Water.

THE true Remedy! the Sovereign Restorative!! the grand producer!!! The subscriber informs the public that after FOURTEEN YEARS of study top of which have been years of immense labor and difficulty, he has discovered the only true remedy against the loss, the sovereign restorative in case of a deficiency, and the grand producer of that most beautiful ornament of the human form divine." THE HAIR!

That it may be known that this Venuis Water is an invaluable article, I will state that in the first years of my labors upon it, its application to the head for two successive seasons was necessary, in order to establish a good growth of hair, but now only one season is required, so successful have been my improvements upon it! And I have the proud satisfaction of knowing that in the City of Bangor alone, three hundred and forty heads which were once bald, can, by the heavy growth of hair upon them, bear witness to the wonderful effects which this Venuis Water has produced within eighteen months!

MYSTERIOUS.

A GENTLEMAN belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up to recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health has regained his natural erect position and has quitted his carriage, and now walks with ease!! We believe this is the gentlemen's own description as near as possible, and there is no exaggeration in it. We will give inquirers his address; and doubt not his humane feelings will excuse the liberty; so that any one doubting, may know these facts though he requests his name may not appear in print. Among other similar instances, Mr. James G Reynolds 144 Christie street, has been restored, and will give personal assurances of the facts of his case. Temperance Life-Bitters,

AND CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS.

☞ The Greatest Secret Discovered ! !

PURGE purge purge has been the cry for the last few years. This has been effectually tried, and yet sufferers have multiplied—and died; and why! Not because purging was not necessary, but too much has been done without the tonic to follow, and sustain the system. Purge, you must! The sickly humors of the blood must be carried off or the accumulation of them prevented. Prevent, then, the growth of such humors.

Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages, and still retain the powers of youth or middle age? Because they purify the blood. The Chinese Blood Pills so called because they work upon and cleanse the blood are the standard remedy. These Pills will do it; and the Temperance Bitters, taken as directed, will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humors which infest the blood, and which only increase by purges, unless the Bitters are taken after. Buy, then, these Pills and Bitters. Take weekly the Pills and daily the Bitters; and if you are or have been invalids for days, weeks, months, or years, you will find the sickly humors drawn off, and prevented from a return, and the sallow yellow hue of sickness change rapidly to the full blooming glow of health and youthful buoyancy.

There are cases so numerous of these brilliant effects, that time and space forbid an attempt to put them down. Buy and use these medicines, and use no other, and health and strength shall be yours. See wrapper and directions that come with them.

FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS

will be attempted. Buy no remedy of the kind unless it have my name O. C. LIN, M. D. on the wrapper, and also the notice as follows:

East India Hair Dye.

Colors the Hair and will not the Skin!!!

THIS Dye is in form of a Powder which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the Hair every night; the first night turning the lightest red or grey hair to a dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or a perfect black; with a positive assurance that the powder, if applied to the skin, will not color it. There is no trouble in removing it from the hair, as in all processes before made.

By an occasional application a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair! Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.

☞ These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and many other works well known and widely celebrated by the public.

STATE OF MAINE.

LAND OFFICE,
Bangor, Oct. 3, 1841

THE undersigned hereby gives public notice that the settling land in the following described Townships, which has been surveyed into settling lots, and belonging to the State, is now in the market for sale and settlement, to wit:

Township No. 4, Range 5, West from the East line of the State.

"	No. 5,	"	6,	" "
"	No. 6,	"	5,	" "
"	No. 8,	"	5,	" "
"	No. 9,	"	4,	" "
"	No. 9,	"	6,	" "
"	No. 10,	"	5,	" "
"	No. 11,	"	5,	" "
"	No. 11,	"	6,	" "
"	No. 12,	"	3,	" "
"	No. 12,	"	5,	" "
"	No. 13,	"	4,	" "
"	Letter F,	"	2,	" "
"	Letter H,	"	2,	" "
"	Letter D,	"	1,	" "

The prices for land in these Townships will vary according to the situation and quality of the lots, not less however than fifty cents, and probably not exceeding one dollar per acre.

The land will be sold upon a credit of four yearly payments, with interest, the three first payments to be expended in labor on the roads in the Township where the land sold is situated, under the direction of the Land Agent, and the last payment to be in cash. Each purchaser will be required by the terms of his deed, within said four years to build a house on his lot, and to clear in a proper manner fifteen acres, ten or more of which shall be laid down to grass.

Whenever twenty, or a less number of persons shall give a satisfactory bond to the Land Agent, that they will within three years erect a substantial Saw and Grist-Mill in any Township lotted for settlers, having no mills in said Township, each of said persons will be entitled to a deed of one lot of land, subject to the performance of the settling duties above mentioned, and the Company will be entitled to a deed of the mill lot.

Not more than four lots will be sold to any one person in any township or tract.

The Aroostook Road has been completed this year, to the Aroostook River, and as that river is navigable for boats, a good communication is now opened to the settler for an easy access to each of the above mentioned Townships.

Saw and Grist Mills have been erected and are now in operation in Township Letter F, Range 2, No. 9, Range 4, and No. 11, Range 5; and contracts have been made for the erection of Mills, the ensuing year, in Township No. 9, Range 6, No. 11, Range 6, and in Letter D, Range 1.

There has been a steady demand for settling land through the season, and more lots have been sold than in any former year. As the United States have recently established a post near the mouth of the Aroostook, and another at the mouth of Fish River, and have sent a Company of soldiers to each, new roads will undoubtedly be soon opened through this section of the State, mail routes established, new markets opened for produce, and the settler will feel additional security from any border difficulty.

With the known fertility of the soil, the advantage of good roads and mills, and the rapid settlement of this part of the State, it is believed that a most favorable opportunity is now offered to young men who wish to become farmers, to secure themselves good locations, where in a few years, with industry and economy, they cannot fail to secure to themselves an honorable competency.

ELIJAH L. HAMLIN,
Land Agent of Maine.

☞ The following newspapers are requested to publish the above notice weekly, for two months, and forward their bills to the Land Office for payment. Calais Advertiser, Waldo Signal, Piscataquis Herald, People's Press, Kennebec Journal, Portland Advertiser, Oxford Democrat, York County Herald, Franklin Register, Lincoln Telegraph, New Hampshire Statesman and State Journal, Atlas, Boston.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Nov. 16, 1841.

IN virtue of an Execution in favor of Thomas Jenness and Leonard March, and against Thomas G. Brown, of Bangor, recovered at District Court, Penobscot county, October Term, A. D. 1841, I have seized and taken on the same, all the right in equity that the said Brown had or had on the 18th A. of July, A. D. 1837, (that being the time of the attachment on the original writ,) of redeeming the following described mortgaged real estate, situate in the city of Bangor, on the westerly side of the Kenduskeag stream, being lot No. eighteen, on Third street, and bounded as follows, viz: Westerly on Third street one hundred feet; northerly on lot No. 19 on Third street one hundred twenty three feet; easterly on the third lot from Centre street, on the westerly side of Plum street one hundred feet, southerly on lot No. 17 on Third street, one hundred twenty-three feet, as the same is laid down on a plan drawn by Zebulon Bradley in December, 1839, and Plum and Orange streets added in 1838 by reference to said plan the boundaries will more fully appear, and being the same premises mortgaged to Henry Flagg, as recorded in Penobscot Registry, Book 61, page 265.

Also, all the right, title and interest the said Brown had in and to said described real estate, together with the buildings thereon, on the 18th day of July, 1837, as aforesaid, at which time the attachment was made on the original writ, to secure the lien which the said Jenness & March had upon said real estate, for materials furnished to said Brown, in pursuance of an agreement for the purpose of erecting the buildings thereon; said attachment being made according to the second section of chapter 278 of the Statutes of the State of Maine, passed A. D. 1837.

And the aforesaid rights and interests will be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY the twentieth day of December next, (A. D. 1841,) at twelve of the clock, noon, at the Penobscot Exchange Coffee House, in said Bangor.

Progress of Settlement upon the Aroostook---Prosperous condition of the Settlers---Irish half Township---Surplus Production---Great Prosperity of the new town of Patten---Mammoth Vegetable Productions---Superior advantages for young Men to Settle.

In 1831 the Aroostook road was surveyed through an unbroken wilderness, and the first settlement was made upon it in 1834 No part of the road was turnpiked until 1836, and it is now completed for the distance of sixty four miles, from the military road to the Aroostook, and nearly every lot upon it taken up by settlers, latteral roads are made in many places, and not less than fifteen hundred inhabitants settled upon the road On one half township purchased by Bishop Fenwick are many settlers, most of them from Boston, and all of whom are getting a very comfortable living in their new home, and nearly every family having a surplus of productions to dispose of, for which they find a good markat at their own doors Upon this half township, is erected a large two story wooden college with one wing completed, and the other wing in progress There is also a Catholic Chapel erected, and partially finished The settlers on this half township, have nearly all paid for their lots, are all industrious and thriving, the whole population is about 250, and we learn that it is the intention of their principal men, to purchase still more land for future settlements The town of Patten upon the road was first settled in 1834, when the first tree was fell within its limits It now has three stores, a saw and grist mill, and tannery, a potash, and other machinery, with mechanics' shops, two taverns, and six barns that cost one thousand dollars each, besides other barns, and the buildings of the inhabitants The settlers in this town have a surplus of hay, and grain the present year to the amount of from seven to eight thousand dollars for all which they will find a ready market One man in Patten raised the present season, two thousand bushels of grain, and even more than that was raised by another man in the same town last year. We had sent us, a few days since, an enormous blood beet raised in Patten, by Mr Taylor, which weighed 12 pounds, showing that the soil there is good for root crops as well as grain for which the whole Aroostook country is famous

The whole amount of surplus productions which the settlers upon the Aroostook road have for sale the present season, will not fall short of fifteen thousand dollars

From two to three hundred settlers, many of them industrious smart young men, from the good farming county of Kennebec, have purchased lands, and commenced operations the present year. The State offers liberal encouragement to settlers by the low price of land, and an opportunity to improve the roads by the payment of a portion of the amount, upon them in labor

The Military stations at Fort Fairfield, and Fish River with the travel which they cause upon the road; the lumbering business the facilities for purchasing land cheap, and paying mostly in labor, with the superior quality of the soil, all combined, make the Aroostook county one of the most desirable places for settlement, for the young men of New England to commence life, or those more advanced to mend broken fortunes, and provide support for a family, that can probably be found, taking health and all things into the account, in the world

In stating what has been done there, we feel that it is giving but an imperfect and faint idea, of what may be accomplished with the superior advantages now enjoyed

From Honolulu. The Grasping spirit of British Monopoly. The Robust claim of possession upon the Pacific daily strengthening &c.

We have been permitted to make the following extract from a letter received by a friend dated Honolulu, Sandwich Islands May 6 1841

"Our latest dates from the U S are May 12, 1841, giving an account of the death of Gen Harrison We have also received Tyler's address. Our dates from China are up to the 20th May 41 The U S Ship Peacock and Schr Flying-Fish were here in June last, on their way to Columbia River two months behind their time The Vincennes and Porpoise arrived at the Columbia River in May last Capt Wilkes gives a highly flattering description of the country he will make a thorough survey of it before he quits it I hope Capt Wilke's official report will open the eyes of Uncle Sam, to his interest on our North-West Coast. Great Britain has held, and still holds, through the agency of the Hudson's Bay Company, exclusive jurisdiction of the beautiful country, their treaty of neutrality with our Government to the contrary notwithstanding

"Several Americans of enterprise have attempted a settlement in the country, but they have been checkmated by oppressive monopoly, until they were fairly starved out, and obliged to return The charter of the H B Co has recently been renewed with an additional grant of two millions pounds sterling intended expressly for the settlement of the disputed territory And they are now erecting temporary buildings on every valuable lot of land and mill-sight in the country. Captain Wilkes says the harbor at Pagot sound, is the finest he ever anchored in, in any part of the world We have an almost incalculable amount of commerce in the Pacific, and yet allow John Bull quiet and undisturbed possession of the only harbor that belongs to us this side of Cape Horn. You are aware that they have already taken possession of New Zealand, and broken up and excluded our fishermen from those seas they have also taken possession of the Faulkland islands (which afford an excellenet harbor) and forbidden our vessels cruising for whales within three leagues of the land. * * * * *

The "star and stripes" are set at half mast this day, over our roof, on account of the intelligence received of the death of General Harrison

☞ Our Market this morning is abundantly supplied with all the productions of the farm, requisite for a genuine Thanksgiving The turkies, chickens, ducks, &c, are of superior quality, and not brought from a great distance in one or two large loads, as was formerly the case, but the real farmers, our neighbors, are now the men that supply our market "equal-to Boston" The bustle in the market, and this improved condition of things, is really cheering

☞ The editor of the locofoco Franklin Register at Farmington, declares that he is out of paper, and has not money enough to pay what he has borrowed, and will not issue another paper until he receives at least one per cent upon the aggregate amount of his dues

☞ The Mechanic Association will meet at their hall this day, at one o'clock, to attend the funeral of their brother, David Adams

☞ According to a custom, as old as Thanksgiving day, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

Mr. Clay.

The rumor of the intended resignation of this distinguished statesman is probably unfounded We have seen a letter from Mr Clay to a gentleman of this city, of the date of the 11th inst in which no allusion is made either to the writer's ill health, or to any intended resignation of his seat in the U S Senate. It is altogether likely that if any such cause of retirement had existed, or any such purpose been entertained, some reference to both would have occurred in the letter We have reason to believe that the patriotic services of the country's ablest friend will not yet be withdrawn from the public councils of the nation Balt American.

Unfortunate Occurrence.

During the severe wind which we experienced on Tuesday last our new Court House fell to the ground with a tremendous crash It was constructed of brick, and the elevation of the exterior walls was nearly completed, and what carpenters were preparing to put on the rafters They had gone to their dinner, and had been absent only about five minutes, when the whole fabric toppled to the ground [Goshen (Orange Co) Republican

An Ancient Printing Press.

The Newport, R I, Mercury, in noticing the advertisement of Franklin's press, says that office has a press of even greater antiquity It formerly belonged to James Franklin, with whom Benjamin Franklin served his apprenticeship and was probably brought by the former to Newport, on his removal from Boston, in 1720

The new process for preserving meat by injecting salt into it by means of powerful pneumatic pressure, will shortly be put into operation at Buenos Ayres and other parts of South America, where it is well known that cattle are extensively slaughtered for the exportation of their hides, the carcasses being completely valueless The meat thus prepared will form an original article of export to this and other countries, and, should the speculation succeed, our provision markets may be supplied with a new description of animal food at a very cheap rate So extensive are the herds of cattle and sheep, in the immense and productive regions of the Pampas, that a traveller in South America, a few years since, states that the carcasses of sheep were used as fuel in heating furnaces English paper

CHAPTER II THE RIVAL

'What heavenly sunset' cousin Lucy,' exclaimed Anna Minot, as she leaned from the open window, with eyes fixed intently on the west 'See there Lucy' that rich purple cloud fringed with flame, as though it were the falling mantle from some fiery cherubim and just above it, see that cloud like a screen to prevent us from looking into heaven is it not sublime'

'Yes, Anna, it is beautiful very and here in the east is a beautiful moon rising to match it See the pure bright orb comes out the moment the sun has hid his face as though she wished not to attract any of the admiration which belongs to his shining sublimity The moon seems to me the type of modest woman, who delights to reflect the happiness and prosperity of those to whom she is dear You smile at my simile well, I confess the moon always my favorite among the heavenly host, and had I been a heathen born, I should have worshipped the moon'

'And the sun too'

'If I had been taught, yes but I should have adored the moon from the impulse of my own feelings'

'Probably, and yonder comes the swain who would have the gentle moon to reflect his light

'Anna'

'Oh, dont blush so, my dear, the moon never blushes And dont look so grave, though its rather a serious business to manage, because your honored mother has set her face so decidedly against your swain But never mind, Roger has a bold heart, and it is my opinion he will win the lady Your father likes him'

'They agree in politics'

'Better than they do in property, I believe Ah, Lucy' look this way, here is one coming from the west who has a host of recommendations to your father

'Who' Oh' Dr Walker He will never gain my favor, I assure you, notwithstanding his host of recommendations

'How perverse of you, Lucy, not to like a fine, accomplished young man, who is dying for you Only consider the thousand advantages of having a physician for a husband Look here, will you the full moon is not favorable to reason and besides, there is something beneath the moon that may claim your attention'

'Dont speak so loud, Anna, pray'

'Are you afraid Roger will hear you'

'Oh, no, how ridiculous' Let us go down to the parlor

During the conversation of the cousins, the two young gentlemen named as approaching, were rapidly nearing each other The dwelling of Squire Hartwell was located at the junction of three roads, where those from the east and west, which were merely paths, united with the great northern highway The house stood a few rods back from the junction having a peach orchard in front, a profusion of rose bushes around the [illegible] and a high and heavy gate, which [illegible] view of the street

The object of the rivals seemed to be who should first reach the gate. Dr Walker had the shortest and smoothest path, but the long and rapid strides of Roger were every moment diminishing the inequality; and as for the stones and hillocks in the path he minded them no more than he would have done thistel down

Dr Walker increased his speed almost to a run it would not do Roger's strong grasp has thrown open the gate he has entered and with no little impetus he sent the ponderous portal back to its station It shut with a loud bang, just as Walker reached it bringing him up to a perpendicular as rigid as that of a Prussian grenadier So closely vis-a-vis was he with the gate, that his nose was grazed by the contact, and partly by the rush of the air, his best beaver was thrown from his head, and rolled considerable distance in the dusty path

Dr Walker was greatly discomfited and not a little enraged at the audacity of his rival, but he well knew Roger was not the man he could frighten; and as for fighting such a fellow, that was out of the question So the doctor endeavored to calm and cool himself as best he might wiped the perspiration from his brow, and the dust from his large silver buckles, adjusted his dress, shook his feet and having recovered his composure, he walked leisurely forward to pay his respects to Squire Hartwell and the ladies

CHAPTER III POLITICS

Freedom, patriotism, and philanthropy, are Nature's three patents for making noblemen

The mind in which either of these three emotions, viz the love of liberty the love of country, or the love of mankind is predominant, will be exalted above the immediate wants and worldly pursuits of men, but if the three noble feelings named, unite and govern in the same mind, be sure that individual will be mighty among his race No matter in what station he is born, to what calling he has been destined there is that in his own breast which will bear him upward and onward And the course of conduct which in a man of his character may, at first, appear presumptuous or impossible, will, in the end, be found perfectly consistent with the confidence which a well balanced and justly directed mind should feel in its own strength and resources

How little did Dr Walker appreciate the cool philosophy of Roger's address as the latter politely bowing on his entrance, inquired after his health Doctor Walker did not reply did not seem to have heard, but hastily shaking the Squire's offered hand, he hastened across the apartment, addressed with his smiling compliments the ladies, and seating himself by Mrs Hartwell he was soon deeply engaged in conversation about the weather.

'Have you heard the news, doctor' cried the Squire, at the top of his voice

'News' what news' reiterated Walker, starting

'Why, that Parliament is about sending over to us all the East India Company's stock of tea'

'Well

'I don't think we can be compelled to buy it, for one affirm that not an ounce shall be drunk in my family'

Dear me' Mr Hartwell, what is the use of making such a fuss about a little matter'

Only three pence duty on a pound Why four pound of tea would be a large stock for the year, and that will be only one shilling to government. and Mrs Hartwell looked triumphantly to Dr Walker for approbation of her prudential speech, while the Squire turned his eye on Roger, as if he wished him to answer it

'It is not the price of the tea, madam, that is of consequence, observed Roger, respectfully, but the establishment of the system of taxation

'Yes,' interrupted the Squire, 'it is the principle that we contend against, 3 pence or 3 pounds would be all the same Indeed, if we submit to pence we may also to pounds'

'We must resist it,' said Roger

'We will resist it,' echoed the Squire

'I do not see as any benefit to the country can result from this resistance, said Dr Walker 'If Parliament has ordered the tea to the colonies it will come'

'It never shall be sold,' said the Squire, setting his teeth and breathing hard

'You must watch the ladies narrowly, then,' said the Doctor, laughing 'They relish tea better than these theories of liberty, which none but a politician can understand.

'The ladies will not thank you for rating their understanding and patriotism so low, replied Roger, casting a respectful but penetrating glance on Lucy Hartwell

'What say you daughter, do you prefer your tea before the liberties of your country' said the Squire, who had remarked the heightening color on Lucy's cheek 'Will you drink the tea that is burdened with the tribute which none but slaves would pay'

'I would sooner drink poison, my dear father, than a beverage obtained by dishonoring my country,' said the blushing girl in a low but emphatic voice

'That's my own child I knew you would prove a good whig'

Nevertheless, the tea will be used, said Walker

'By the fishes, perhaps 'retorted Roger, scornfully 'The cargo will never be landed at Boston I have to-day seen a gentleman from that patriotic town, and I know the resolution of the people They will sink the ships rather than permit it to be landed'

'And you sir, would doubtless be aiding and abetting them if it were in your power,' said the doctor

'With might and main, heart and hand, like a knight without fear and without reproach from any but tory, replied Roger

'Do you know that you are talking treason against the British Government, retorted Walker, angrily, for he saw that Lucy smiled on his rival

'I know I am talking reason, sir, replied Roger, calmly rising and confronting his antagonist. 'And I have faith to believe that I shall live to see the day when, in America, reason will not be treason'

CHAPTER IV A NEW LOVER

Now a great deal depends upon position The young girl, in the ball room, must appear in a graceful position, the lady in society must maintain a fashionable position, the statesman before the world must assume a commanding position, but none of these are more important than the position which a young man maintains in the presence of his lady love from his position and the manner in which he operates on her feelings, always predict their destiny If he rattles and prattles, and talks sweet nonsense, and she is delighted with it they will be a stupid couple, and probably quarrel before they have been wedded half a year If, on the contrary, he appears dignified and respectful, and sometimes introduces subjects of moral and intellectual improvements, and she appears gratified with his tone of sentiment, or responds with a brilliant quotation or appropriate remark There, I say, is a couple who have a fair chance of being happy themselves, and who will probably shed a lustre around them which shall light the path of others

When Roger stood before his rival in the calm dignity of a patriot, and Lucy's eye showed that she approved his speech as the perfection of manly sentiment, it was all over with Dr Walker He was in a false position He understood it too, and more angry that he had been beaten by a man who was an an inferior station, than that he had lost the lady, he determined to bring another competitor into the field, one who had no political disabilities to surmount, who could agree with the father about the whigs and with the mother about the weather, and whose profession, family, fortune and figure would, he doubted not, gain the victory over Roger This new candidate for Lucy's favor was Seth Trumbull the young lawyer

The young lawyer became a constant visitor at Squire Hartwell's It was soon understood by the whole parish, that the match was, as it is termed, made True, Lucy steadily denied it, but at that day it was not the fashion for young ladies to proclaim their engagement as soon as they had said yes so her denial went for nothing

Dr Walker asserted confidentially, every where, that it would be a match, Mrs Hartwell did not contradict it, nobody dared question the old Squire on this subject, and as for Anna Minot, the gay teasing little cousin, she always laughed and said, 'like enough' when the subject was referred to her So the matter was settled Every body said that Lucy Hartwell was engaged to lawyer Trumbull

Every body said so except Roger, he never ventured to say a word about it The young ladies generally believed it was a sad disappointment to him, and pitied him exceedingly But most of the elderly people especially the grave fathers, differed from this opinion They said Roger had no idea of marrying, that he was poor and ambitious, and that such a man never thought till he had risen in the world, in those primitive times not to marry for money.

Roger had opened a store in a neighboring town He worked no more at shoemaking, but pursued his business as though a life depended on his diligence

CHAPTER V THE BETROTHMENT

'Lucy, said Roger she turned towards him a gleam of moonlight streamed through the leafless boughs of the peach tree beneath which they were passing, and fell strongly on her upturned face, the wavy outline of her eyelashes was distinctly to be traced in shadow on her fair cheek Roger thought she was very pale.

'Lucy will you grant me one minute's attention'

She looked towards the door of her dwelling, where Anna Minot and Mr Trumbull were then entering she hesitated and stopped

'Lucy it is a long time since I have had the pleasure of speaking to you

'It is about five or six weeks'

'They seem to me ages

'Do you not like your business'

"I did like it because it afforded me hope of rendering myself worthy of you It has been told me (he spoke low and rapidly) that you are inclined to favor Trumbull She did not speak I am poor, Lucy I must labor I am without friends, and must make my own way, it may be years before I take the station in society which Trumbull now occupies, but assure as I live, Lucy I will he paused, for though he had often indulged the hope, indeed knew, that he should rise superior to Trumbull, yet he shrunk from expressing the anticipation It seemed like a vain boast

'You do not believe me, then, Lucy' he continued after a long pause.

'I have heard nothing to believe Had we not better go in, my cousin will wonder what detains us

'Perhaps Mr Trumbull will likewise like to know.

'If he does, I shall not take the trouble to tell him'

'Lucy, will you tell me' are you engaged

'No

'And and may, I hope that you never will be engaged that is to him Lucy I love you'

The abruptness and impetuosity with which he spoke, seemed the effect of feelings which he could not repress Lucy was so surprised, so confused, that she was obliged to lean on his arm for support so there was no opportunity for her to show much anger at his presumption Roger soon forgot that he had ever been poor and a shoemaker The first consciousness of being beloved, seems to a young man, as the crowning point of his ambition He feels elevated, for he has secured the empire of one heart, which he would not forego for the sceptre of of Napoleon

Roger walked into the parlor of Squire Hartwell that evening, with the air of a man who has no further cares for what may betide him in this life, and Anna Minot said that he asked consent that very evening

'Roger is well enough,' said Mrs Hartwell, 'and I shall say nothing against the match, now he has left off shoemaking A merchant's wife has a very respectable station, though nothing very grand However, if Lucy has no ambition it does no good for me to talk I have always been anxious about her marrying well'

'I think my dear, she is going to marry well, said Squire Hartwell, 'Roger will be

'Yes yes, husband, I have heard you say a thousand times he would be a great man; but I never saw any prospect of it for my part, Anna Minot in my opinion, does marry well Mr Trumbull as a lawyer and may be a judge'

'And so may Roger'

'Oh, that is impossible He has never been educated Mr Hartwell

'He can educate himself.'

'Well, well neither you or I shall ever live to see Roger Sherman a Judge'

But they did live to see ROGER SHERMAN a JUDGE, and a SIGNER of the DECLARATION of INDEPENDENCE

Claims of Women.

The fickleness of women is the result of the carelessness of man, for even in their haughtiest moods they can be easily subdued by kindness That is their legal claim upon the rougher sex, who, after all, are ever attached to her, even when they appear most alienated from the fervor of her affections As it is most natural, so it brings to us a vision of heaven, when two fond hearts glide through the world in loviness together, and every wedded pair might be that happy couple did they but bear each other's burdens and strive, with half the zeal they sometimes exert to make each other miserable, to contribute to their mutual happiness As woman is the mother of the world, so she should be the instructress the fountain of wisdom as of pleasure, and she who is most deeply read in the history of her duties will make the best companion and the truest and fondest wife, though a spark of beauty never lighted up her cheek, nor a jewel glistened in her hair. It is the native grace, the richness of her modesty, the worth and excellence of her temper, that makes her what she is, and what Nature cries aloud she ever will remain the kindest truest friend of man'

TO THE LADIES.

INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPEMENTS AND PERSONAL BEAUTY CONSIDERED IN CONNECTION WITH DOCT. FELIX GOURAUD'S POUDRES SUBTILES.

The sculptor whose study is to imitate the exquisite workmanship of nature, pourtrays in his model of the human form a broad and elevated forehead This developement is not only consonant with but sometimes necessary to the possession of a high order of mental faculty If a fine forehead is a mark of intellect, it is no less an essential element of personal beauty and it is of importance to those and there are many such possessed of this prominent feature though obscured by the encroachments of a too luxurious growth of hair to remove that portion of an excrescence which tends in their case only to deform This can be done safely speedily effectually, and if used in accordance with directions, without the least inconvenience, by Dr Felix Gouraud's Depilatory Powders The fuzze of the lip, when annoying, or the short hair on the back of a ladies' neck, when too apparent the hair of a mole or the beard, when lying upon the cheek may all be removed, and eventually the roots destroyed, by the use of this preparation

Manufactured by Dr Felix Gouraud, 67, Walker street one door from Broadway, N York $1 00 per bottle

GOURAUD'S EAU DE BEAUTE, OR TRUE WATER OF BEAUTY.

For removing Freckles Tan Pimples Blotches Sores Burns and all Cutaneous Eruptions realizing delicate white hands, neck and arms and eliciting a healthy juvenile appearance $1,00 per bottle

GOURAUD'S VEGETABLE ROUGE!

Composed materially from flowers and simples imparts a delicate carnation tinge to the cheek immovable by perspiration or rubbing with a handkerchief or a linen cloth 37 1/2 cents per bottle

To be had in Bangor of the sole appointed agents, Messrs WHITTIER & GUILD, Druggists.

BALSAM OF LIVERWORT

DR TAYLOR'S BALSOM of LIVERWORT has been used successfully for eight years in the Cure of these Diseases ☞Remember the original and genuine is made only at 375 Bowery, New York, ALL others are spurious and unauthorized

CONSUMPTION & LIVER COMPLAINT

As a general remedy for these diseases I am fully satisfied from long experience there is no medicine equal to Dr Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort Being purely vegetable it can be used with the utmost safety by all persons in every condition It cleanses the lungs by expectoration relieves difficult breathing and heals the chest There can be no question but this medicine is a certain cure for common coughs and colds I have used it for four years in my practice and always with success. A F RODGERS, M D

☞SPITTING OF BLOOD This disease consists of a discharge of blood often frothy from the mouth brought up with walking and coughing, and is usually accompanied with difficulty of breathing and some pain in the chest. Sometimes it is preceded by an oppression at the chest, a dry tickling cough and slight shooting pains This disease is always more or less dangerous The great danger is that these symptoms may terminate in consumption and immediate remedies can alone save this end But Dr Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort is a sure remedy and to shew its unparallelled success certificates of cures from 42 citizens and many physicians will be published in a few days.

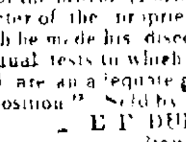

☞NERVOUS DISEASES AND WEAKNESS Dr Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort made at 375 Bowery, is assuredly an excellent remedy for these diseases My wife has been more or less ill for ten years She was extremely nervous and at times so weak that she could not attend to her domestic duties By the use of this medicine, her strength is wholly restored and she is as healthy as I can wish her to be My address is at Dr Taylor's office

CURE OF CONSUMPTION Mrs Martin a worthy member of my congregation was taken ill some time since with a cold pain in the breast and some difficulty of breathing and in a few days thereafter she had a violent cough and violent pain in the sides which no medicine would relieve She continued in this way for a long time under the medical care of Dr Rea but finally became consumptive, and was evidently near the end of her earthly sufferings when her brother persuaded her to try Dr Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort When she commenced this medicine it did not seem to agree with her for a few days, but by lessening the dose she found it answered admirably it relieved her cough and her difficulty of breathing instanter, and we had the pleasure of witnessing her rapid recovery to health.
